Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

Congratulations! I am pleased to inform you that your admission file has been reviewed and you have been admitted to the Full Time Master of Business Administration (IMBA) graduate degree program at CLU for the Winter 2013 Term, which starts on November 26, 2012.

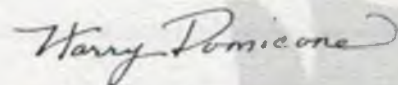

Important: After carefully reviewing your background, it was determined that to maximize your probability of success in graduate studies, upon entering CLU you will be required to complete Foundations of Business Methods course in your first term of study as a component of your MBA program.

Your admission reflects our confidence in your ability to become a successful member of the University's graduate community. We believe that you will find the atmosphere one which will stimulate your intellectual and personal growth, and we wish you every success.

Please be aware that if you require housing during your MBA program at CLU it is suggested that you apply for housing at least 90 days prior to the beginning of your intended term of entry. This will help to ensure that adequate housing is available.

We look forward to your arrival and want you to know that the faculty, staff and administration at CLU will be happy to be of assistance as you pursue graduate study. I wish you every success and welcome you to the University.

Sincerely,

Harry A. DOMICONE, Ph.D.
Director, Full-Time MBA Program
